THE SANITARIUM.

The Glendale Sanitarium is busy making preparations to handle the largest patronage they have ever known, as they are able to care for twice as many as they could last year. All guests will be made comfortable and happy. The social life at the Sanitarium is not neglected and besides the charming little indoor affairs which sometimes occur, there are many inviting walks and drives, mountain climbing, picnics, visits to the beach, and there is always recreation to be found in the tennis court and on the croquet ground. Everything possible is done to make newcomers feel at home at once. Our Sanitarium is one of the most inviting health resorts in the Southland, and perhaps does more than the people here realize toward advertising beautiful Glendale and its possibilities, its healthfulness and fine climate. Visitors there are always gladly welcomed and asked to come again.

ELECTION AT TOLUCA.

The number of votes cast were 150. Two years ago 110 were the best we could do. Gillett's vote stood 81. Goode received only 45 votes. The principal issue and excitement was over the "wet" and "dry" proposition. The place will remain dry by a majority of 16. This was the first election we had local officers to elect. D. A. Fullerton was elected constable and I. C. Ijams was elected justice of the peace.

It is surely a relief to us to know that election is over and we will now be able to read something else besides palaver about this and that candidate that we know to be a rascal. The citizens of this valley are much more interested in consolidation of the city and county of Los Angeles, the San Fernando Valley-Los Angeles City water controversy, and prospective railway building, and we will expect our local valley papers to hand us out "great bunches" of it this winter.

That's the reason we are supporting these papers that the rest of the county might see how we stand on these different questions. We are for consolidation, but only under certain conditions, and we want the officials and the citizens at large to know these conditions. If we don't make our wants known and fight for them we will come out the "little end of the horn." Our local papers are the only way we can reach the people that we want to know these conditions. Our local papers are the only way to reach ourselves, strange to say, for past experiences have shown that you can't get a handful of our citizens out to a public meeting, no matter of what importance it may be to them, to discuss these questions among themselves. These questions must be discussed, and we surely have enough intelligence in this valley to handle the subject properly and forcibly on paper. The consolidation committee is going to come around to tell us what a glorious thing consolidation is going to be for us, and we must be prepared to tell them what we want and must have before we will cast our vote that way.

We don't want consolidation if we are only granted the privilege of help paying the costs of getting the water here. We want a guarantee of so many inches of water to the end of time. The older residents of the valley will remember that the country lying south of Los Angeles known as Vernon was supplied with water for irrigation purposes by the city for years, but when the demand became so heavy for domestic purposes these ranchers were shut off and their gardens and orchards were allowed to dry up and die. These ranchers would have been up "against it" good and proper had not the city grown at a very rapid rate in their direction, so that they were able to dispose of their holdings in city lots at splendid prices.

The San Fernando Valley will be a strictly farming community for years to come and we, who have helped pay to bring down this water, don't want to wake up some morning finding tacked on our gate post a notice from the city of Los Angeles to the effect that the city is growing so very fast that they will be obliged to use all the Owens River water for domestic purposes for themselves and the surrounding cities and for you to go to "thunder." We know the city tactics like a book from past and present experiences, so watch out what we vote ourselves into.

The present water fight needs an endless lot of probing and an article on that subject is read with much attention. We would like to see the city officials have something to say in our papers in defense of our remarks against them if we are not stating the truth in our discussions. If they have any compromises they wish to offer on the consolidation and water questions let them come forth and declare themselves. All we want is a square deal.

Electric railway building into this valley should be agitated continually, telling of our growth, our products, our prospects, our desire for the same and what we will do to get a road. Attract the attention of these enterprises and they will investigate.

MUSIC RECITAL.

The winter's approach brings with it a promise of much social gaiety, as a round of pleasures are already planned and society folk are looking forward with much eagerness to the interesting events in store for them. One of the most important and eagerly looked for events is the fine musical recital to be given under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Bryant, on next Friday evening, November 16th, at Masonic Hall, Brand Boulevard, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of M. E. Church. Mrs. Bryant has promised this event for some time. Glendale people well know the lady is the possessor of a remarkably sweet soprano voice of clear and pure quality, for she has always been pleased to sing in social circles since she has lived here and to aid in church work often. She might well be termed the songstress of Glendale and all should be delighted to assist her efforts now in return for the pleasure she has so many times given so gladly and cheerfully. In addition to her voice, Mrs. Bryant possesses a beauty of quaint personality which makes her a favorite wherever she is known. Among those who will assist will be Mr. Jamie Wittson Overton, the violinist who last year at Mr. Fuller's concert in Masonic Hall took the audience so by storm. At his touch the soul of his violin speaks to his hearers in tones of exquisite beauty. Hearts are touched and eyes are filled by the very loveliness of what he offers them, and his popularity is unquestioned.

Mr. Edward Simpson Fuller, pianiste, will assist, also Miss Edith Harris, reader, from Los Angeles. Miss Harris is a general favorite and never fails to win her audience.

Wedding Bells.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barrett was the scene of a very quiet but beautiful wedding Thursday evening, November 1st, 1906, when their daughter, Miss Isabel M. became the bride of Mr. Leon K. Wilbur of Los Angeles, Rev. Chas. H. Kershaw officiating, and only immediate relatives being present.

With sweet solemnity the bride and groom approached the altar to the strains of the wedding march played by the bride's only sister, Mrs. Holmes G. Brown of Los Angeles. The ring ceremony which was used was short but impressive.

Light refreshments were served after which the happy couple departed on their honeymoon trip.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white wool, daintily made and trimmed with home-made knitted lace, a gift to the bride from her mother for the occasion.

Her traveling suit was beautifully tailored steel gray cloth, with hat to match. The bride is well and favorably known in Burbank and Los Angeles, where she has many friends.

The groom is a young man of sterling worth, being a Spanish-American war veteran, having served two years in the Philippines and holding honorable discharge. He is also a cousin of Judge Curtis D. Wilbur of Los Angeles and is a general favorite wherever he is known.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur will reside in a cozy cottage in Los Angeles. Their many friends wish them much joy and a long life of happiness and prosperity.

The Emperor of Japan

Saturday was the fifty-fifth anniversary of the birthday of the Emperor of Japan. Several from Glendale went to Los Angeles to witness the celebration at Agricultural Park, which was packed with little brown people and Americans; and was all ablaze with the colors of Japan and America.

There were addresses, music from a brass band and much enthusiasm.

The imperial edict was read by Dr. T. Nishikata, calling upon loyal subjects of the Emperor to unite in doing honor to him and their native land on the occurrence of his anniversary.

Dr. G. T. Bovard, president of the University of Southern California, delivered an eloquent address on the progress of the land of the chrysthemums, winning much applause from Americans and Japanese alike.

Then the field-mortar boomed, filling the air with balloons writhing serpents and gay flags. There followed exciting contests, races and wrestling matches, entered into with a zest that made the whole exhibition a highly interesting one.

You will miss a rare treat if you miss hearing the musical program to be given at the Masonic Hall Friday evening, November 16th in behalf of of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church.

Plans for the dark town show and cotton ball are arounsing excitement as it takes much taste and planning to create an effective ball-gown out of cotton, and the five dollar prize is something to strive for. Some singers from Los Angeles have been secured and the best local talent will be drawn upon. The cake-walk will be the thing. Aunt Mirandy and all the chilluns will be there to vie with that Maria Johnson and the rest of her swell set from Magnolia land. Everybody will want a taste of that poundcake to be given as a reward of merit.

Now that election is over let us all get down to business again and boost our town along.

We don't want to be put in the "I told you so" class, but that is our ante-election sizing up of the result in the gubernatorial contest—Gillette first, Bell second and Langdon a bad third.

It is announced that "sock" socials are all the rage at "Santa Monica by the Sea." Glendale declines to keep in the rear of the procession and will give one big "stocking" social on Christmas eve. Everybody hang 'em up.

The News has only pity for persons who abuse it for the good it has done, and will continue its efforts for the good of Glendale and the surrounding country. A little encouragement now and then will be cordially welcomed, however.

When it becomes practically sure that the straight ticket has won, the hot air gent can be heard boasting that he voted 'er straight—never scratched a ticket in his life—a grand type of American citizen, free to swallow "yellow dogs," etc.

William Also-Ran-dolph Hearst was defeated by Mr. Hughes for governor of New York. That eliminates Hearst as a presidential possibility and gives sane-minded people of the country greater cause for genuine thanksgiving on the 29th.

It behooves us now to keep our eyes on the next legislature, for the bunco game on the water question will no doubt bob up serenely at Sacramento next winter. A serious mistake was made in not sending Goode there to watch our interests.

The Oxnard Courier says that "Oxnard is building rapidly. Two new buildings are nearly completed." Come down this way, brother, and observe as many hundred buildings nearing completion in Glendale. If we keep the stride up Los Angeles will probably be annexed within a few years.

Try and work up a turkey appetite and think of something to be thankful for before the 29th of this month, as President Roosevelt has proclaimed that Thursday as Thanksgiving Day. The fact that you reside in this section of God's universe is good cause for prayerful thanks even though the turkey is absent.

It is to be hoped that Francis J. Heney, in his prosecution of Mayor Schmitz and Boss Ruef and their underling bribe-takers, will not overlook the rich bribe-givers. It is far more dangerous to the community to give a bribe than to take one, because a man is often tempted by his necessities to accept a bribe, while the bride-giver is criminally vicious.

The Shropshire Home

Among the recently finished handsome homes in Glendale is that of J. P. Shropshire, located on one of the finest corners in the city, among the orange trees on Fifth and E streets. The house has been occupied by the family for the past three weeks and is most comfortable and homelike.

There are eight rooms, many closets and a fine screen porch, where, as in the house, hot or cold water may be obtained.

From the broad front veranda one steps into a fine reception room with built-in seat and stairway at the far end.

To the right is a cozy room finished for library and den. To the left through a columned archway is a spacious parlor with fireplace and mantel. Back of this is a charming dining room with bow window and built-in buffet. All the rooms are tinted with striking harmony. In the kitchen is a handsome built-in cabinet where many original ideas were used.

On the upper floor are sleeping rooms and bath room with a very unique linen closet. The view balconies are the most charming feature of the house. They command views of the entire valley. These are well furnished with stationary rustic furniture.

Mrs. B. Nichols Honored

On Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the Presbyterian Aid Society, sent to the home of Mrs. Benjamin Nichols a large and handsome picture of Hoffman's head of Christ, with a splendid spray of glowing poinsettas and the following note, which is self explanatory:

"The note that only bears a verse
From God's own word,
Such tiny things we hardly count as ministry;
The givers deeming they have shown scant sympathy.

But, when the heart is overwrought,
Oh, who can tell
The power of such tiny things
To make it well?"

"Tiny tokens"—Havergal.

To Mrs. Nichols:

We, the members of the Aid Society wish to express to our organizer our appreciation of the executive ability and energy, which has kept us as an organization—alive and active for so long a time. Also to express our regret that your health compels your absence from us. We beg that you will accept this slight token of our love, and we hope to have you among us soon again.

The little friends of Dorothy Hunt will be delighted to learn that she is again about and able to be her quaint little self once more. It has been decided not to send Dorothy to school for the remainder of the term, that she might rest and recuperate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Khold of Petersburg, North Dakota, arrived in Glendale last week on their wedding trip. For a few days they were house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, when they went to Los Angeles where they will spend the winter.

If anyone having partly worn clothing of any discription, for men, women and children, including any part of infant's wardrobe, and all kinds of hose, where the feet only are worn, will kindly bring or send them to the home of Mrs. Hendershott on J street between Fourth and Fifth, they will be sent where they will do good service and be greatly appreciated.

Hallowe'en week was especially eventful among the young people in Glendale. Among the seasonable events was a charming little affair given by Miss Helen Lampson at her pretty home on Third street. Decorations consisted of jack-o-lanterns and candles. Ghost stories were told, apples were ducked after, and there followed a marshmallow roast. Apples, fudge and nuts were served as refreshments.

Thos. C., (Chet) Jones and Elizabeth Marvel were married at the bedside of the bride's sick mother in the Glendale Sanitarium on Wednesday evening, Nov. 7th. The bride and groom are both well known in Glendale and to know either of them is to respect and admire them and this worthy young couple has the well wishes of their legion of Glendale friends.

Friday was the time chosen by Mrs. J. M. Smith to entertain with a six o'clock family dinner. Bright yellow chrysanthemums were tastefully used in decorating the prettily laden table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shreve of Venice; Dr. R. L. H. Turner and Miss Mamie Shreve, Los Angeles; and Mr. Harry Valient of Glendale. A general good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Park Harrison is here from Kansas to visit his sister, Mrs. Lenox, Verdugo Road. Mr. Harrison is an old school friend of Mr. Robt. Blackburn, they having known each other in Arcadia, Nebraska. At present he expects to rest and recuperate, when he will go into some kind of business here. Such men as Mr. Harrison are very welcome in Glendale.

Mr. Kels, who, with his family, formerly resided on Verdugo Road, Glendale, was drowned on Tuesday last. Mr. Kels was working at Lemon on the Salt Lake railroad and was stopping with a family there, and as he failed to come to the house at his usual time inquiry was made and it was not until Wednesday morning that his coat was discovered near a well and upon investigation his body was found in the well. It is supposed that Mr. Kels in repairing something around the pump on the well, lost his ballance and fell in.

CONTEMPTIBLE WORK.

Mr. G. H. A. Goodwin, manager of the Erkenbrecher Syndicate, informs The News that some person or persons tore down and destroyed street signs and tore out lot stakes in the Valley View Tract. This kind of treatment is not such as to warrant people coming in and expending their money for improvements and steps should be taken to apprehend the perpetrators of this fool deed and assurance should be guaranteed that such work will not be tolerated in this community. The Erkenbrecher people are expending thousands of dollars in improvements in this community and should receive the support and encouragement of all good citizens.

Money to Burn.

On Sabbath morning will be Old People's Day. Rev. W. S. Blackburn will preach the sermon. The service will be conducted as they were 50 years ago. A general invitation is extended to old and young.

The pastor will preach in the evening. Subject; "Half hour silence and three hours of darkness."

The Epworth League social on Tuesday evening was a real success. Oceans of fun and bushels of laughter. Miss Mary Blackburn at the head of the social department is to be credited with much of the evenings success.

A full house at the services last Sabbath was experienced. The music was splendid. In the evening where was the choir? Who will answer?

Mr. and Mrs. Norton were out on Thursday to the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Thompson for dinner.

The home is in a lovely part of Los Angeles—on West 30th street.

Mr. Fred Anderson and Sherman Purcell were out from the city on Wednesday to visit us. Mr. Pursell is just from Muscatine, Iowa, and is delighted with Southern California.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Sunday School room of the M. E. church on Tuesday afternoon, November 13th from two to four oclock. Topic for study: India Jubilee, Medical and Evangelistic work in Southern Asia—Our branch missionaries in the field. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

P. E. O. House Warming.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 5th the ladies of P. E. O. and their gentlemen quietly gathered at the Brand Boulevard station, intent upon giving to Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Albright a grand surprise and house warming at their fine new home on Orange street, where they have recently moved.

Mrs. Albright had been expecting Prof. and Mrs. George U. Moyse, and when they arrived with the whole party, it proved a genuine surprise, as they filed eagerly into the house, twenty-five in all. Soon there was music and fun galore. Dr. C. L. Magee rendered some fine solos in his most happy manner. Master Elliot Albright gave some good violin music, and Mr. F. E. Albright delighted all with some trombone solos, accompanied by Mrs. Moyse.

Some jolly old barn storming music, dear old tunes of times 'way back east, were given by Mr. R. D. Goss, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Burkett. It set hearts to fluttering because of sweet memories recalled, and feet tapped to the rhythm of old familiar strains. Then came games such as conversation, and patent medicine, which aroused wild delight about the tables. Refreshments consisted of coffee, doughnuts and red apples.

Those present were—Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Campbell, H. P. Smith, R. D. Goss, Dr. Bryant, Geo. U. Moyse, C. E. Russell, C. Byrkett, Mrs. Emma Byrkett and Mrs. Best. Messrs. Best, Dr. C. L. A Jolly House Warming

A charming affair, novel in ideas and appointments, was the birthday party, Friday evening, of Miss Birdie Lee Shropshire, this being her sixteenth birthday. Many beautiful gifts attested her popularity among her school mates and friends. The reception hall and large parlor were tastefully festooned in garlands of green, and starry cosmos added dainty touches of color. The dining room was done in graceful garlands of crimson and seasonable blossoms.

After quaint games, Miss Leonora Griffin favored the company with some fine instrumental music. Miss Lillian Shropshire, sister of the charming hostess, gave as a reading "Mrs. Tubbs at the Sewing Circle," winning much laughter from her audience. Miss Birdie, herself, delighting all with a very original recitation of "Church Reveries," bringing in the names of those present. The climax of the evening was the birthday feast when all repaird to the dining table where reposed the wonderful cake among fairy-like masses of cosmos that nodded to the sixteen red and white candles. It was a fortune-telling cake, for Miss Rheta Trimble found in her share a golden ring, foretelling that her marriage will occur in the near future, while a darning needle fell to John Fischel, who must darn his own clothes forevermore in lonely bachelor-hood. The affair was in the nature of a housewarming, this being the first social event in the new house. Guests included, besides a niece and a nephew from Lawrence, Kansas, several friends and neighbors from Pico Heights, Los Angeles. These were Miss Leonora Griffith, Mr. Cecial Kinkaid, the Misses Swan, Alice Ackman, Mary Stone, Will Swan, and a few from Glendale.

Birthday Party

A happy affair among the little ones on Friday afternoon was the birthday party given to little Harriet Irmah Williams. With the aid of masses of glowing chrysanthemums her home was transformed into a floral bower. Here the guests, girlies with saucy bows on their nodding heads and little men with the courage of knights, congregated, showering pretty gifts and congratulations upon the sweet hostess. Then came a hay ride to Verdugo Park where they scattered through the fallen leaves like quail. After a jolly battle with autumn leaves they paused to listen what the brook had to say before they repeated with clear fresh voices, "Over the river and through the wood." Then came the rush for the big swings and all took a turn. Over and over again the children shouted on the return trip—Hurrah, hurrah, who's alright? Harriet, Harriet, she's alright! with slogans for Glendale and their beloved teacher. Arriving at the house they cried: "Is the birthday cake done?" Almost instantly they were surrounding the candle-lighted table. Above them was a canopy of greenery, garlands of pepper blossoms reached to the corners of the table, on which rested white masses of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Of course the piece de resistance was the huge cake within a circle of glimmering candles, which the child hostess cut amid deafening cries of, "She's alright!" when the feast disappeared like magic.

TROPICO

On Saturday evening the Skidoo Club will go to Los Angeles to attend the opera.

Dr. Best entertained Miss Delfine Eddy and Dr. and Mrs. Conrad in the city with a theater party Friday evening.

Among the new arrivals Wednesday in Tropico was a baby-girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carter, Cypress street.

Mrs. Hess Brewster will leave in a few days for New Orleans, where she will visit throughout the winter. She has rented her cottage for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summers of Chicago are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kilmer at their home on Glendale avenue, Tropico. Mr. Summers is a brother to Mrs. Kilmer.

There was a chicken supper with a most genorous menu given by the W. R. C. at G. A. R. Hall on Wednesday evening. There was a large attendance and a general good time was had.

Dr. Best, who has rented the Bradley cottage on Tropico avenue for the winter, recently entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon. Miss Delfine Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Wheat, Los Angeles; Miss Elizabeth Wheat and Dr. and Mrs. Conrad.

Mrs. John Seaman gave a very charmingly appointed affair on Saturday evening. There were about twenty-five guests present. There was some splendid music and jolly games were played. Light refreshments were served at half after ten.

To honor her friend Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. H. Davenport has issued invitations to a few friends for a twelve o'clock dinner at her home on Glendale avenue. Those invited are Mesdames Hobbs, Brewster, Webster, Wilkinson, Stevenson, Thompson and Logan.

The Improvement Association meeting which was to have been held on Wednesday evening, has been postponed one week. It will be a meeting of importance and a large attendance is earnestly desired. Speakers from Los Angeles will be present to give methods for plans which the Tropico people will be glad to hear.

On Wednesday afternoon occurred the first meeting of the new literary club at the home of Mrs. Wm. Harvey, Jr., on Tropico avenue. "Inspiration" was one of the topics discussed. Plans were laid for work to come in the near future. The club expects to meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month. Much interest was manifested in the new lines of thought which will be taken up.

The ladies of the Thursday Afternoon club are still active in library work, and are expecting to accomplish much in the near future. New work will be taken up after the first of December, as just now work for the bazaar intervenes. Practical housekeeping was the topic discussed at the last meeting, at the home of Mrs. Malcom, Central avenue.

Bazaar.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of Tropico are preparing to give in the near future a supper and bazaar. Many fancy articles have been made for the fancy-work booth, which are suitable for Christmas gifts. There will also be an apron booth, and best of all a most attractive doll booth. The ladies have been working hard, holding one and sometimes two all-day meetings a week since the first of August. Mrs. Hobbs, president, has accomplished much, having very able assistants to help her. Her work committee consists of Mesdames Davenport, Logan, Thompson, Stevenson, Webster, Brewster and Wilkinson. These ladies have devoted their time and their energies to some purpose, judging from the amount of work already accomplished. All the Presbyterians in the valley will be invited to attend. Throughout the summer the regular monthly meetings have continued as usual.

JAPANESE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Japanese of the valley gave a fine entertainment in Logan Hall on Saturday afternoon from one to five to celebrate the birthday of the Emperor of Japan. The hall was appropriately decorated with odd and peculiar shades of crepe paper, the finely cut window drapes being especially noticeable for their airy beauty; intermingled with gay streamers were the colors of Japan. Neatness and precision were noticeable in the entire scheme of decoration. The program was well thought out and prepared. There were some good speeches and a little brown Japanese maiden, Miss Araki, told about the Emperor and his birthday celebrations. The short Japanese drama given in native costume was the most popular feature of the program. Enjoyable music was furnished by Mrs. C. H. Peckham, accompanied by Mrs. Neil Chandler, and also by the Misses McKowan. Little cakes in cute boxes were passed. There were nearly five hundred people present.

Hallowe'en at the Manse

On Friday evening, November 2nd, the High School Juniors entertained the Senior and the Faculty at the Manse, the home of Miss Irene Ward with a ghost party. Time-honored Hallowe'en customs were observed, and many old time tests of the future were indulged in. The creeps began when arriving guests read over the gateway the legend, "Leave hope behind, all ye who enter here."

The large rooms were seasonably decorated, the harvest idea predominating, and were lighted only with fantastic jack-o-lanterns and weird blue flames produced with alcohol and salt. There was genuine fun over guessing the identity of ghosts, as they wandered silently about. Then followed a marshmallow contest, and a good old-fashioned taffy pull. Refreshments consisting of nuts, raisins, red apples, doughnuts and such viands as were presumably used in the days of early witchery, were served.

At "Ard Eevin"

On Tuesday afternoon November 6th, the ladies of the Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church, enjoyed one of the finest meetings the society has ever held. They were met at the car and most comfortably conveyed to "Ard Eevin" the home of Mrs. Dan Campbell, where the hostess met them. So much was said of the beautiful ride with the wonderful views of hills and valley, that they were taken to the upper floor of the pergola. From here one witnesses a rare picture in the most wonderful and perfect panorama to be obtained of our valley.

The perfectly appointed home right among the foothills, is an ideal place for entertaining and Mrs. Campbell certainly possesses the art of being a perfect hostess. During the afternoon many new and original plans were discussed for making money, several being adopted for the coming affair to be given, through the kindness of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, in the Masonic Hall, Brand Boulevard.

This is to be a hymn book social, planned for the first Friday in December, to raise money for the purchasing of new hymn books. There will be a dainty candy booth, presided over by Miss Ruth Byram and her class of young girls, all in Japanese costume. At the well, Miss Irene Ward will make a charming Rebecca, serving punch. A conspicuous feature will be a delicatessen counter arranged under the chairmanship of Mrs. George E. Williams, assisted by Miss Fielding, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Ogg and Patterson.

Mrs. Lawrence Ward with a bevy of pretty girls will look after ice cream tables, and there will be music given under the direction of Mrs. Mary Fiske.

Mrs. Campbell was charmed that the ladies so heartily accepted her plans, and thanked them for their generous promises of assistance.

Very dainty and delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon in the drawing room, which was artistically decorated with roses and poinsettias.

Epworth League Entertaines

The Epworth League of the Methodist church entertained on Tuesday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall with a program provided by the young people, under the direction of Miss Mary Blackburn and Pearl Goode.

Miss Rheta Trimble gave a well rendered instrumental piece, and Masters Ray and Leo Goode proved beyond a doubt that they are sweet singers, responding twice to encores. Miss Una Russell and the Misses Newhall furnished some sweet singing. There was guitar and mandolin music and many other fine numbers given; among them, "His Sister's Chum," by Miss Bernice Williams. This was her first appearance as a reader and an encore was called for and gracefully given.

A Peculiar Accident

Master Leland Smith met with a rather peculiar and painful accident Wednesday while playing in the office of Mr. F. Gilman Taylor, with the sons of Mr. Taylor. He made a very satisfactory musical instrument with a board, some finishing nails and a few rubber bands. During their play he fell upon one of the headless nails, which entered his cheek and was almost entirely imbedded there. Dr. Chase was called and after administering chloroform he removed the nail which had then been in the cheek fully three-quarters of an hour. The brave boy climbed upon the operating table without assistance, and his friends will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering.

Reunion Dinner

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Fiske on J street, occurred a rather unique birthday dinner when there was a family reunion to celebrate the birthdays of Masters Elliott and Horace Albright and of little Margerete Fiske, all of which occured in October.

There was a fine chicken dinner with plenty of ice cream and delicious cakes. Among those present was the great aunt of the little ones, Mrs. M. S. Merrill, from Boyle Heights, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Dana Fiske and daughter Margerete, Mr. Sam Fiske and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Albright and son, Mr. M. L. Albright.
